

We are pleased to announce the arrival of both Richard Murrall and Alannah Macdonald to the Pellys team.

Richard joins us to develop our expanding Company & Commercial team. Richard has extensive experience in all Commercial/Company matters and along with our Commercial Property team to provide the full range of services for existing and new business clients.

Richard has almost 30 years experience in advising businesses of all sizes and sectors on a wide range of corporate transactions and commercial agreements. He spent 15 years with large corporate practices in Birmingham.

This experience includes mergers and acquisitions, business sales, management buy outs, shareholder agreements and shareholder disputes, re-organisations, joint ventures, share option and employee incentive schemes, bank finance, partnership agreements and a wide range of business to business agreements across a variety of sectors.

Richard was listed in the Legal 500 2015 as a “Leading Individual” in the West Midlands and cited as “offers a customised service, having listened to the clients actual needs.”

We are delighted to have Richard on board and he is looking forward to the opportunity to develop and grow this area of the firm. We wish him every success.

Alannah joins our growing Private Client Team having previously worked for a firm in North London. She will be based in our newly acquired Royston office but will cover all offices to provide clients with support, guidance and advice in making a Will and other related services. Like Richard we are delighted to have Alannah as part of the team and we wish her every success for the future.
